

SOURCES FOR AGILITY INFORMATION ON THE INTERNET

My AgileDogs website

<http://www.agiledogs.net>; I have links to other websites here, as well as general training information and tips, and the ability to sign up for my mailing list. Also, information about continuing agility and other classes can be found here, plus testimonials and my student's brags!

NoviceA (terrific list for beginners to talk about training, brags, or anything!)

This is found in <http://groups.yahoo.com>

Under "Join a Group", search for "NoviceA"

Note: You have to be a member of yahoogroups to use this service – but it only takes a minute to join and it's free.

** Several other discussion lists you might also be interested in exist in yahoogroups. Literally thousands of discussion lists are here; search for anything you want, and you'll probably find it! Besides lists for just about every breed of dog (or mix of breeds), there are lists for every sport and activity you can do with your dog, as well as behavior lists, trick training lists, and "brag" lists!

AgileDogsAT

This is also a Yahoo Group. My own discussion list, where I post about my seminars and classes, and we discuss training issues or whatever we want to!

Cleanrun (tons of dog info, agility info, and links to other agility sites)

<http://www.cleanrun.com>; select Magazine Forum

Note: they also have a Yahoo Group by the same name.
