Workshop Descriptions:

Props Fantastic: Building those WCRL Level 3 & AKC Masters Skills

Smart handlers know that fundamentals are the key to those “fancy” moves—position changes at a distance, drop on recall, moving stands, straight backups, sidesteps, go-outs, & retrieves. It's never too early to lay the foundations for success with these moves.

Join in for a morning of using props to build behaviors and learning how to successfully fade the prop so your dog's performance is fantastic.

This workshop is appropriate for dogs working at all levels of training, providing they understand how to learn in a room with other dogs.

What Do You Want? Increasing Your Dog's Enthusiasm for Rally

This workshop addresses the “you” in the question in two ways: What do you the handler want from your dog's performance? And, what does your dog want in order to give you that performance.

When faced with a dog who shuts down in the ring, or leaves you, or is unenthusiastic about training, handlers often need help seeing what they can change to charge up their dog's desire to Rally. This is not just for the “shut down” dogs; many dogs stress up—that is, zoom around the ring as a way to show their disinclination to work.

We'll address different ways to engage with our dog; we'll ensure that you are reading the signs of stress in yourself and in your dog; we'll create a plan to change your dog's emotional response to training or competing.

This workshop is appropriate for dogs at any level of training
